Covington, WA – During the month of March, also designated nationally and in the city of Covington as Youth Art Month, local students’ art will be on display throughout the city. The month-long event features budding young artists from local schools and showcases their art inside participating Covington businesses.

This year marks the Student Art Show’s 12th anniversary. Over 942 pieces of artwork are being featured in 23 different businesses in Covington who offered their space as “galleries” for the work.
