

Covington Citizen Awards 2014

Do you know of someone who has been active in youth services, senior services, or some other kind of community service over the past year in Covington? Do you know of someone who should be recognized for their efforts to make our city a better place to live?

Nominate them for the annual Covington Citizen Awards!

Simply complete the nomination form below by June 16 and tell us why the nominee should receive the Covington Citizen of the Year or Honorary Citizen of the Year award. Award recipients will be notified by June 27 and will be honored at the July 8 regular City Council Meeting. Recipients will also be invited to appear in the annual Covington Days Festival Parade on Saturday, July 19.
