Recess Monkey is the nationally acclaimed trio of Seattle teachers who make music for kids and families that truly rocks. They met while teaching at the same Seattle elementary school, and soon discovered the connection between the kids they taught and the music that they love. "Deep Sea Diver" is the band's ninth album, showcasing the high-energy, pitch-perfect understanding of what gets kids excited that has launched them into national awareness.

Time Out New York recently named them the #3 Indie band in America behind the iconic They Might Be Giants and gifted Chicago kid-tunester Justin Roberts. Known for prolific, eclectic musical output and their contagiously exciting live shows, Recess Monkey strives to strike a balance between kid-centric ideas and musical authenticity. Lyrically, they weave jokes and puns together with universal childhood themes, speaking to both kids and their parents simultaneously with catchy, melodic songs.
