The City of Covington is obligated to employ qualified persons. It also considers an applicant's conviction record as it relates to job performance, as entitled under the law. A conviction record will not disqualify you for employment, unless such record would reasonably affect your fitness for the position for which you have applied. The City will perform background checks with the Washington State Patrol. If selected to fill an employment position with the City of Covington, you will be provided with an Authorization for Release of Washington State Patrol Information for your completion and subsequent return to the City.

The following questions MUST be answered by all applicants, in order for this application to be considered complete:

Have you been convicted of a felony, or released from prison in the last ten (10) years? Yes ___ No ___

If yes, please explain: _____

Have you been convicted of a misdemeanor other than a traffic offense within the last three (3) years? Yes ___ No ___

"I certify that all statements in this application are true and correct to the best of my knowledge. I understand that falsification of information on this application may be cause for elimination from the selection process and dismissal from employment, if hired. Additionally, I authorize the City of Covington to solicit information regarding my character, general reputation, previous employment, work-related skills, and similar background information, and to contact former employers I have listed on my application materials, unless specified to the contrary. I hereby release all parties and persons connected with any such request for information from all claims, liabilities, and damages, for any reason, arising out of the furnishing of such information. Consent is granted for the City of Covington to furnish this authorization to third parties in the course of fulfilling its official responsibilities. For this purpose, a copy of this signed authorization is as effective as the original."
