The City of Covington is obligated to employ qualified persons. It also considers an applicant's conviction record as it relates to job performance, as entitled under the law. A conviction record will not disqualify you for employment, unless such record would reasonably affect your fitness for the position for which you have applied. Once offered a position, you will be asked to complete an online nationwide criminal background check through AVerity.com that has results that are acceptable in accordance with the position being offered prior to the offer of employment becoming effective.

"I have read the employment opening announcement, including the functions required of the position that I am applying for, and attest I can perform the essential functions of this position with or without reasonable accommodation.

I certify that all statements in this application are true and correct to the best of my knowledge. I understand that falsification of information on this application may be cause for elimination from the selection process and dismissal from employment, if hired. Additionally, I authorize the City of Covington to investigate all statements on this application and to solicit information regarding my character, general reputation, previous employment, work-related skills, and similar background information, and to contact former employers I have listed on my application materials, unless specified to the contrary. I hereby release all parties and persons connected with any such request for information from all claims, liabilities, and damages, for any reason, arising out of the furnishing of such information. Consent is granted for the City of Covington to furnish this authorization to third parties in the course of fulfilling its official responsibilities. For this purpose, a copy of this signed authorization is as effective as the original.

If I am applying for an exempt position, I understand that nothing in this application or my communications with any City of Covington official is intended to create an employment contract between the City of Covington and me."
