

DETAIL NOTES

Above capacities are based on a 55° angle of inclination.

Larger capacities are available.

Selection and sizing of the required coalescing plate separator and vault shall be based on project design parameters and the requirements of the adopted stormwater manual, as amended.

The coalescing plate separator and vault shall be in accordance with the approved civil design plans and drainage report.